Welcome to XVITAL.

You've just taken a decision that most people delay for years to take control of your health with clarity, structure, and science.

At XVITAL, we don't believe in generic diet charts or guesswork. Your body, your lifestyle, your goals everything is different. So your protocol will be built specifically for you.

Congratulations

Important Guidelines (Read Carefully)

- This is a science-backed nutrition protocol, not a crash diet.
- Results depend on consistency, honesty, and execution.
- This program does not replace medical advice. Continue prescribed medications and consult your doctor where required.
- Your plan is custom-built, avoid mixing external diets or random advice.

Your Role (This Decides Your Results)

- Follow the plan with discipline
- Communicate honestly during check-ins
- Trust the process so don't jump between methods
